

Cotswold School shows its kiwi colours

Cotswold School Year 4 students dress up with style for Kiwiana Day.

Cotswold School showed its true kiwi spirit at its Kiwiana Day last Wednesday 20 August.

Year 3 and 4 students celebrated what it means to be a Kiwi. The event was an exciting finish to their five-week unit on Kiwiana, which covered English, social studies, technology, kiwi icons and inventions.

Students came to school in Kiwiana costume and awards were presented to the best-dressed sheilas and blokes.

Students sang Kiwi songs including 'The gumboots song',

'She'll be right' and 'My dad loves rugby'.

They then shared a good old kiwi barbecue with parents and caregivers. Some students also made pavlovas.
