

Four-legged friend at Cotswold School

Susan Barnes, speaker from Royal New Zealand Foundation of the Blind, talked to Cotswold School about the importance of guide dog appeal week recently. She talked about the huge benefits of having her guide dog Sam. "[The Foundation] receives no government funding, so is very dependent on funds from businesses and individuals."

Sam is a familiar sight at the University of Canterbury where Susan is a post-graduate student. Cotswold School students had a mufti day to raise funds for the appeal. Guide dog appeal collectors gathered in malls last weekend.

The amount of funds raised will be known later this month.

Lynley Hua, Emily Kyle and Chloe Mitchell with visiting speaker for Royal New Zealand Foundation of the Blind, Susan Barnes, and Sam.